

Tom Duck - Texas

Mr. Duck is the Executive Director of the Texas Rural Water Association where he has been employed for 19 years. He was previously employed as Executive Director of the Texas Classroom Teachers Association where he worked for 18 years. During his tenure with Rural Water he has had the honor of serving as President of the Rural Water Research and Education Foundation and as President of the National Alliance of State Rural Water Associations. He has also been recognized by his peers in the National Rural Water Association where he was named Executive Director of the Year in 1999 and in 2004. He has a BBA in Finance from the University of Texas and is married with four children and one granddaughter.